

'Neighbours without Borders':

Building a Culture of Encounter in a polarised world

A series of evening lectures at Oscott College to explore the role of the Church and inter-religious dialogue in building “a culture of encounter” in service to humanity.

Nov 3rd: Dr Gavin D' Costa (Bristol University; Angelicum, Rome) Catholics and Jews since Vatican II: Blessings and discoveries.

Nov 10th: Dr Mary McCaughey (Oscott College)- Pope Francis on Wisdom and the culture of encounter in inter-religious dialogue.

Nov 17th: Dr John Chesworth (University of Birmingham) Writing about the other: Christian-Muslim Relations. A Bibliographical History 600-1914.

Nov 24th: Ms Pat Whitney and Dr. Mohammad Ali Shomali (Birmingham Interfaith Group): Building a culture of encounter through Inter-faith dialogue in Birmingham.

Venue: Aula Spencer - Oscott College

Time: 7.30pm arrivals for 8.00pm lecture

For more details and tickets see Oscott College website homepage

www.oscott.net