

Public Lecture—Oscott College
Friday November 4th, 7.30pm

George Weigel :
To Sanctify the World: The Vital Legacy of Vatican II

George Weigel is a Catholic theologian and one of America's leading public intellectuals. He holds the William E. Simon Chair in Catholic Studies at the Ethics and Public Policy Centre in Washington, DC.

He is the author of the biography of Pope St. John Paul II, Witness to Hope (1999) and author or editor of thirty other books.

Event: a public lecture on his latest (soon to be released) publication, To Sanctify the World: The Vital Legacy of Vatican II as part of a UK tour.

“Anyone interested in a bold yet authentic interpretation of Vatican II should read this book, in which George Weigel persuasively demonstrates that the Council—the Holy Spirit’s greatest gift to Catholicism in the twentieth century—was not so much about reinventing and ‘modernizing’ the Church as Christifying and converting the world.” (Bishop Robert Barron)

Venue: Aula Spencer, Oscott College

7.30pm- 8pm: Arrivals, Registration and Refreshments.

8.00-9pm: Lecture: Dr George Weigel.

9 -9.30pm Chaired discussion.

Cost: Tickets are £10 from Eventbrite