RCIA Retreat Day and Rite of Election 2023

Dear Father, Deacon and RCIA Coordinator,

I write now with more details about the RCIA Retreat Day and Rite of Election in 2023. There will also be the annual diocesan Mass of Thanksgiving on Sunday 28 May 2023 at The Cathedral, more details to follow. Please remember that these Diocesan events are not optional, but form an integral part of the RCIA journey, so please encourage members of your RCIA group to join us at these events.

The Bishop's Retreat takes place on Saturday 11 February 2023 and is for anyone considering receiving the Sacraments of Initiation this Easter. It is a time of quiet prayer and reflection for both Candidates (Baptised) and Catechumens (non Baptised). Sponsors, Godparents, and Catechists are also very welcome and are encouraged to attend. Please ensure you book places as soon as possible. The day begins with coffee at 10:30am (please do not arrive too early!) and includes reflections led by Bishop Mark, times for quiet prayer, and the celebration of Mass. The day will finish by 4pm. Participants are asked to bring a packed lunch with them, hot drinks being available throughout the day. I am very grateful to the community of Saint Philip Neri parish Birkenhead for hosting the day in Saint Michael & All Angels Primary School and church (New Hey Road, Woodchurch CH49 5LE)

The Rite of Election and Call to Continuing Conversion will take place on Sunday 26 February 2023, the First Sunday of Lent, at The Cathedral in Shrewsbury at 3pm. It is essential that parishes book places for both the Retreat and the Rite of Election.

This Parish Pack will be uploaded to the new Diocesan website as soon as possible. The pack includes:

- An invitation to the Retreat Day that can be printed out and given to participants.
- An invitation to the Rite of Election and directions to The Cathedral.
- Faculty Application Form and Guidance Notes. Please note: appropriate Faculties are required by parish priests when receiving adults and children of a catechetical age into full communion with the Catholic Church.

Please use the attached booking form for both the Retreat and Rite of Election. You will need to complete the details for each of your Catechumens and Candidates. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact Anthony Timothy at the Curial Offices (email: rcia@dioceseofshrewsbury.org).

Thank you for all you are doing and looking forward to seeing you at Saint Michael & All Angels on Saturday 11 February.

Kind regards

Very Reverend Christopher Canon Matthews
Diocesan RCIA Coordinator

What is the Rite of Election?

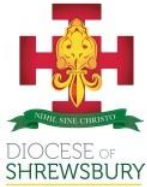

Our celebration of the Rite of Election marks a significant stage in your journey of preparation into full communion with the Catholic Church.

The phrase, 'Rite of Election', may seem a little unfamiliar. In our context it has nothing to do with politics. Rather it is a declaration by the community of Faith that God has called us to be 'a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people set apart.' Each of us is called to praise the wonderful works of God in our daily lives and this is true whether we are already members of the Church or we are preparing to be.

Furthermore we receive this call in and through the Community of the Church and it is precisely because of this that the Father of our community presides over our celebration. Our Bishop, The Right Reverend Mark Davies, is the shepherd of the Diocese. Celebrating the Rite together reminds us that, although we are members of our parish communities and form a diocesan family, we are also a part of the Body of Christ, the Universal Church, which embraces people of all nations and is the sign on earth of God's everlasting love and fidelity. The Rite of Election and Call to ongoing conversion, is celebrated on the First Sunday of Lent in Cathedrals across the Universal Church.

The enrolment of names that takes place during the Rite is not simply a question of 'signing on'. Rather it is a visible expression of personal commitment. Those who enrol at the Rite of Election wish to commit themselves to the life and mission of the Church, and the acceptance of this commitment by the Bishop is the moment of election.

We look forward to receiving you all as our guests on 26 February.
