

BIDDING PRAYER

We pray for all victims of trafficking, their families and communities who are all affected by this evil crime. May St Josephine give them strength and may all of us play our part in rescuing and rehabilitating all survivors, while building the resilience in our community to protect all those vulnerable to exploitation.